

25th of September, Zāle Nr 4
9:00-10:30	“What happens when you leave the clinic? Expanding our impact to where it really matters” Dr.Bronwyn Lennox Thompson
10:45-12:15	“Scar tissue management in physiotherapy” Prof. dr. physiotherapist Jill Meirte “Locus of control and the therapeutic relationship in reducing long-term dependency in physiotherapy” Liene Pulmane “Application of dual-task and cognitive function assessments for evaluating the validity of the pediatric balance scale in children aged 4 to 6 years with ADHD” Mikus Muižnieks “Mūsdienīgas tehnoloģijas fizioterapijā: rehabilitācija, novērtēšana un progresu kontrole” Artjoms Lukjanskis
12:25-13:30	Main stage: “Medical Documentation in Physiotherapy: Challenges, Practices and Future Perspectives” Alma Cirtautas, Evita Dubiņina, Aderito Seixas Additional stage: “How to Choose Your Path: You Don’t Have to Have It Figured Out” Mark Grigorjev, Valērijs Kņazevs, Madara Umleja, Sandra Muša Additional stage: “Ko attēldiagnostika mums pasaka par sāpēm” LV Elīna Bergmane, Alise Nīcmāne Aišpure, Māra Epermane
13:30-14:00	Poster presentations
14:30-15:45	“Role of physiotherapy in Inflammatory diseases, past, present and future” Dr Thijs Swinnen
15:00-16:30	Hall No 5: “Physiotherapists professional autonomy in age of Artificial Intelligence” Aderito Seixas, Kristīne Matuka, Anna Rubika, Alma Cirtautas, Līva Tiesnese
16:00-17:00	“Model for care in rheumatology” Dr Thijs Swinnen, Aleksandrs Ivanovskis, Elīna Bergmane, Guna Bērziņa
17:00	Closing ceremony

25th of September, Hall No 2, workshops

8:00-9:00	“Assessment of Chronic pain in Physiotherapy: Pain Behaviour scale and Pain related behaviour” Martin Argus, physiotherapist, PhD
10:30-12:30	“Pain is in the brain. Incorporating neuroplasticity in musculoskeletal physiotherapy” Dr Hubert van Griensven
12:30-14:00	“Scar Management Using Medical Compression Garments for Oncology Patients and Burn Survivors” Liene Leske, PT, Mg.sc.sal., Latvia, Kotryna Mankauskaitė, Patient Representative, Lithuania, Harriet Rohrmann, Regional Director CEE, Julius Zorn GmbH (English)
14:30-16:30	“Rethinking Pain: a New perspective on clinical management for Physiotherapists” Mike Stewart, PT MCSP SRP BSc (Hons) MSc PG Cert (Clin Ed)

26th of September, RSU MITC, Anniņmuižas bulvāris, workshops

9:00-11:00	“Physical Activity, Exercise and Personalised Care, Including Digital Health Tools in RMDs: Case-Based Learnings with a Focus on Axial Spondyloarthritis” Dr Thijs Swinnen
9:00-13:00	“Words have power. A communication skills workshop for better pain management” Mike Stewart, PT MCSP SRP BSc (Hons) MSc PG Cert (Clin Ed)
11:30-13:00	“Chronic Non-Specific Low Back Pain – Virtual Reality Task Demonstration and Training ” Elīza Prindule, physiotherapist Linda Lancere, physiotherapist
13:30-17:30	“The psychology of pain: A practical workshop for integrating behaviour change in physiotherapy.” Mike Stewart, PT MCSP SRP BSc (Hons) MSc PG Cert (Clin Ed)